FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

I cannot come to Malaysia before 27 August 2018 and register for the course. If I arrive late, can I be given special permission to register late for the class?

The first lecture will be on Monday 17 September 2018. You must register during the registration period. If you have any concerns, please email the PIE coordinator, Mr Abdul Rafil at abdulrafil.calcpie@gmail.com.

I have been teaching English for so many years in my country. Can I be exempted from the English Language requirement?

No, you are not exempted. You still need to provide TOEFL or IELTS scores.

I have classes at the same time in my faculty. Can the PIE classes be held at a different time?

If you are given a 'Provisional Admission' on your admission letter from UPM, you MUST give priority to the PIE classes.

If you sign up for courses in your faculty and there is a clash in the schedule, you must attend the PIE classes. You are not allowed to come late or leave early from the PIE classes.

I have done well in the writing component of my TOEFL. Can I be exempted from this component?

The PIE is offered as a package. You are not allowed to sign up for individual courses unless you are repeating the component.

I am waiting for my TOEFL/IELTS scores. If I register for the PIE and I get my results during the semester, can I be exempted from the PIE?

No, you must have your TOEFL/IELTS scores BEFORE you register as a student in UPM. Once you have signed up for the PIE course, you will not be exempted even if you pass the TOEFL/IELTS during the semester. (Please refer to the program coordinator, Mr Abdul Rafil for advice).
